HAROLD BRAUN WITHOUT BLAME.

HAROLD BRAUN WITHOUT BLAME.

Public opinion and the public conscience will approve the decision of the Attorney General that there is to be no prosecution of Harold Baunch Eddahur how who killed his father to save the life of his motine.

There can be nothing but sympathy for the last who found himself facing the awful alternation of the same pounded to death; and admiration for the low who land the courage and devotion to save his mother at the price.

The law acquits this boy of any offence. It is always and the same and public disrepute because a terrible fact conference him with eigenvalue for the same his proposed to the same. He must not go through hife under a stigma of public disrepute because a terrible fact conference him with eigenvalues.

cumstances in which no normal by control other than he did haun's death lies in the grave. With him. No share of its attaches to the son by whom his death came about. By his own act he made is he spik is cacertioner. He deserved to be keld, for to kill was the only way to save a keld, for to kill was the only way to save a way to save a way to save a save a save as the decision of the corner's large. It is confirmed by the decision of the attorney General, It must have the approval of society, not only as a fact in law but as a fact in life.
